Announcement on Bid-Winning of Construction Project

The board of directors of the Company and all its directors guarantee that, this announcement does not contain any false information, misleading statement or material omission, and severally and jointly accept responsibility for the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the contents of this announcement.

Recently, Sinopec Oil Engineering and Construction Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sinopec Oilfield Service Corporation (the "Company"), won the bid for Section I of the general contracting project for the construction of Heihe-Daqing and Daqing-Changling Natural Gas Pipelines (the "Project"). The bid price is RMB1,772 million, representing approximately 2.2% of the operating revenue of the Company for the year 2025 under the PRC accounting standards.

The Company is mainly responsible for the construction of a natural gas pipeline with a total length of approximately 279 kilometers and a construction period of 710 days. Winning the bid for the Project demonstrates the market's strong recognition of the Company's brand, reputation and expertise in long-distance pipeline construction. As the contract has not been formally executed by the relevant parties, the Project is still subject to uncertainty and investors are advised to pay attention to the investment risks.

This announcement is made by the Company voluntarily.
